PRESS RELEASE

Fourth Judicial District Magistrate Judge Appointed

The Magistrate Commission for the Fourth Judicial District appoints Theodore J. Fleming as magistrate judge in ELMORE COUNTY.

Theodore J. Fleming, 38, of Emmett, has been appointed magistrate judge in Elmore County.

Mr. Fleming holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from the College of Idaho and earned his Juris Doctorate from Oklahoma City University in 2005. He also holds a Master's Degree in Public Administration from Boise State University. Mr. Fleming has been admitted to practice in state and federal courts in Idaho and Oklahoma.

Since 2013, Mr. Fleming has been in private practice and a partner with the Fleming Law Offices in Emmett, Idaho, focusing on criminal defense at the felony and misdemeanor levels and civil litigation across a variety of subject matter including family law, estate planning, guardianship and conservatorships, landlord tenant, and adoption and termination proceedings.

From 2006 – 2013, Mr. Fleming was a deputy prosecuting attorney for Canyon County, Idaho, where he prosecuted all levels of criminal and civil matters. From 2005 – 2006, Mr. Fleming served as a staff attorney for Oklahoma City University, where is provided services to victims of domestic violence. He also served as appellate counsel on pending cases.

Mr. Fleming will start his judgeship position later this summer.
